

2010 Season

Dundas County Players, your local community theatre, present an exciting line-up of entertainment this year from a rollicking and naughty bedroom farce this spring to an autumn featuring two clever and amusing mysteries. Don't miss out on the fun. Help out with the productions! Become a patron! Come to the shows!

Hotbed Hotel by Michael Parker

Director: John Orton

April 9 and 10 at 7:30 p.m.

April 11 at 2:00pm

April 16 and 17 at 7:30pm

April 18 at 2:00pm

To make a failing hotel appear more prosperous to a prospective buyer, the owners have their tipsy handyman and vacant maid masquerade as paying guests. Add to that an eccentric retired British Army Major, a wealthy Arab Sheik, a nymphomaniac dubbed the Barracuda, the prospective buyer's mistress, followed unexpectedly by his jealous wife and you have a laugh a minute merry-go-round that leaves audiences screaming with delight.

November is Mystery Month! With two plays to keep you on the edge of your seat!

The Reluctant Resurrection of Sherlock Holmes

By David Belke

Director: Tony Glen

November 5 and 6 at 7:30 p.m.

November 7 at 2:00 p.m.

November 12 and 13 at 7:30pm

November 14 at 2:00pm

When Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is called upon to solve a mysterious murder he is convinced that it is the result of the paranormal. However, it soon becomes apparent that he is the one who is possessed, and not by any ordinary ghost, but by his own literary creation, Sherlock Holmes. The twists and turns of this clever play will leave you haunted by one of the most enduring characters of all time.

Murder by the Book

By Mat Kelly

November 26 and 27 at 7.30 p.m.

November 28 at 2.00 p.m.

What happens when five eccentric murder mystery writers set out to solve a real life murder which has taken place right beneath their nose? Their imaginative speculation is matched only by the clever plot of local playwright, Mat Kelly, who shows us that truth can be sometimes stranger than fiction, and a whole lot more amusing!
